To V. Anantaraman, Esq., B.A.,
Secretary to the Govt. of Mysore,
Revenue Department, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honour to enclose herewith for the information of Government a copy of D.O. letter received from the Revenue Commissioner requesting me to take steps to arrange to sink wells in forests resorted to by cattle from the maidan districts. The Revenue Commissioner has not informed me the localities in which the wells have got to be sunk and I am in communication with him in the matter. In the meantime, I request you to obtain sanction of Government to permit me to incur an expenditure of Rs5,000 in arranging for water supply to the cattle wherever necessary.

I will submit to Government on receipt of the information from the Revenue Commissioner, the exact localities localities where the well Works are undertaken.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

B. Ramanujam

Conservator of Forests.

Letter No.152 dated 4th December 1923 from the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore to the Conservator of Forests in Mysore.

In view of the large number of cattle being driven to the forests, proper water supply has to be arranged in them. I request that you will obtain funds from Government, if necessary, and authorise your subordinates to sink wells wherever required.

I hope you will also instructthem to be sympathetic towards our poor ryots in these hard times. I thank you most heartily for the ready response you have given to requests from our department.

Draft-Send intimating that the communication should be addressed to the Revenue Commr.

All this delay should have been avoided - all distressed papers should be treated as immediate - and put like this up

Draft for Govt for application of such a measure was adopted during the years 1908-1909 when there was similar distress in the State.

The sum asked for appears to be high. The total amount spent in 1908-9 was 237 Rs - Please see Para 48 of the R. Gangas report. A sum of Rs 500/- or Rs 1000 may be asked for this purpose. Draft to issue or other orders
